

ART SERIES LAUNCH

Charleston Artist Collective

To complement our kitchen's innovative spirit, Wild Common's dining room and ambiance have always been art-infused. In partnership with Charleston Artist Collective, we are proud to feature local Lowcountry artists on our menus and we're thrilled to launch the latest series. Allow us to introduce you to these talented artists below and be sure to book your reservation to experience their incredible work in person.

SHANNON WOOD

Shannon's work, focused on the marshes and waterways she still calls home, invites the viewer to revel in the possibilities that live just beyond the horizon. The ever-changing light & hues of the Lowcountry create an infinite supply of inspiration. Her work has been featured by Serena & Lily, Charleston Magazine, Williams Sonoma Home, Southern Living, HGTV, and more.

CHELSEA GOER

Born and raised in SC, Chelsea spent her childhood between the upstate and Pawleys Island. Chelsea's artwork is inspired by her love of the South's unique way of life. You will often find her work is comprised of Lowcountry favorites like oysters, the sea, and colorful figures. While not painting, you will find Chelsea surrounded by the very things she paints.

MARY L. HOFFMAN

Since the age of 3, Mary Hoffman has always drawn and painted, and knew without a doubt that when she grew up she'd be a professional artist. Mary became best known for her portraiture art. For the past 30 years, Universities, and collectors from all over the world have commissioned her for her elegant oil paintings and charcoal portraiture.

BETH WILLIAMS

Beth's paintings and drawings can be found in the homes of collectors across the country. She participates in juried exhibitions, teaches drawing and painting, and most of all loves encouraging people to appreciate their own creativity and process. When she paints a subject, portrait, flower, bottle of wine, or chair, she is motivated by intimacy and uniqueness.

TAMMY MEDLIN

Tammy was born and raised in Colorado and now resides in Charleston with her husband and 2 children. With beaches, marshes, and architecture, she couldn't ask for more inspiring surroundings. The mountains still call, however, so you can find her dividing her affections between the Lowcountry marshes and the rugged beauty of the Rockies.
